

JOB POSTING

Habitat Technicians (2)

LOCATION: Sussex, NB

TERMS: Seasonal, full time, with possibility of extension

ANTICIPATED START DATE:
May 13, 2024

SALARY: $15.50/hr

EDUCATION: High school, college or university.

JOB SKILLS: Comfortable wearing waders and working in different environments with various tools. Physically fit and at home outdoors with an ability to work as part of a team. Willing to learn new skills on the job and willing to have their picture posted on social media in all kinds of weather conditions. Good observational and navigational skills, and a positive attitude.

JOB DESCRIPTION: Working as part of the habitat restoration crew the habitat tech will assist in completing general site and sign maintenance; assist in the installation of various habitat enhancement structures including duck/bird boxes, brush piles, pollinator gardens, and aquatic habitat structures. The field tech may also assist in hosting public engagement events, educational workshops and outings, and site tours. The habitat techs will also assist the monitoring team in assessing habitat, collecting samples, deploying sampling devices, and more. The habitat technician will frequently work outdoors, while in and around running water.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT:
Willingness to work in an outdoor field environment in all weather
Contract position for 40 hours per week for 10 weeks with possible extension

APPLY VIA E-MAIL: ben.whalen@kennebecasisriver.org